

CRANAplus Awards

CRANAplus Awards recognise and acknowledge the significant contribution of nurses and midwives who are innovative professionals, determined in their work, dedicated to remote practice, helping the profession thrive in spite of the challenges it presents.

Can you think of an outstanding nurse and/or midwife in the workplace whom you would like to nominate for an Award category?

The Aurora Award recognises the Remote Area Health Professional of the Year.

The CRANAplus Awards categories are:

- Excellence in Education/or Research in Remote Health
- Excellence in Remote Health Practice Award
- Novice/Encouragement Award

All nominations close 30 June

Download the interactive Nomination Form
<https://crana.org.au/membership/awards>

Awards are announced at the
CRANAplus Conference Awards Dinner annually