

LINKS Mentoring Program Criteria for Mentors and Mentees

MENTOR

Essential

- Experience working in remote and/or rural setting
- Knowledge of contemporary health issues in the remote and rural context

Mentor qualities:

- Respect for alternate views and cultures
- Good listening skills
- Accessibility and reliability
- Open to reverse mentoring/learning from your mentee

At ease with remote communication strategies i.e. teleconferencing, Skype

Responsibilities:

- Commitment and completion of the CRANAplus mentoring program
- Participation in a formal relationship with mentee
- Agreement to the terms of the contract and supervision with online program coordinator

MENTEE

Essential

- Working in remote and/or rural practice setting as new graduate or undergraduate on placement
- Ability to demonstrate a clear commitment to the program and their responsibilities as a mentee

At ease with remote communication strategies i.e. teleconferencing, Skype

Responsibilities

- Agreement to complete the online module
- Participation in formal relationship with mentor
- Agreement to the terms of the contract and supervision with Online Program Coordinator