

CRANAplus Scholarships & Grant funding available

CRANAplus Scholarships & Grants, provides opportunities for health professionals working in remote & isolated practice and students with that career interest, to access Professional development activities

CRANAplus Undergraduate Remote Placement Scholarships

Available to those enrolled as a full-time student in a health discipline at an Australian University. These scholarships offer financial assistance (to a maximum of $1000) to support undergraduate students who are interested in working remotely, giving them the opportunity to experience a remote health setting first hand.

Applications close:

31st May - Round 1

31st October - Round 2

CRANAplus Grants

(Sponsored by The Nurses' Memorial Foundation of SA Inc Grants)

The grants for Nurses & Midwives are to contribute to registration fees for CRANAplus short courses or the CRANAplus National Conference, thereby assisting individuals to enhance their knowledge and skills in providing safe, quality care to remote and isolated individuals and communities.

Applications close 31st July

Gayle Woodford Memorial Scholarship

This scholarship jointly sponsored by CRANAplus and the Centre For Remote Health covers all course fees for the Graduate Certificate in Remote Health Practice offered through Flinders University. One scholarship will be offered annually, for study to commence the following year.

Applications close 31st July

CRANAplus Conference Attendance Funding

CRANAplus is committed to ensuring the remote and isolated health workforce have an opportunity to attend their National Professional Conference. As part of this commitment, CRANAplus offers Conference Sponsorship for individuals who are not in a position to self-fund nor have access to external funding from employers or other scholarship support schemes.

Applications close 30th June

Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander people are encouraged to apply
For more information and to apply go to: www.crana.org.au/membership/scholarships